Want to organise a stress-free party

Create a perfect event with your personal Chef- where everything is taken care of from shopping to food. All you need to do find out about my delicious Indian/ Thai/ Asian or Combo Menus, budget, date & time, Rest assured everything will be taken care while you entertain your guests & friends and have a nice & quality time.

What are the menu options

Authentic Home cooked food from Indian/Thai/Asian or Combination. I will send you the Menu choices to choose from and happy for any recommendations. Once we decide the menus (Which i have plenty of choices), we will finalise the date and go from there.

One thing I can assure food will be healthy, no greasy like restaurants & authentic with absolute flavours.

Food & Kitchen Services

I can come over to your place and organise the feast for you or you can simply pick up your food and reheat in an oven (which i will provide the instructions). I prefer stainless steel containers, rather than plastic to minimise the damage caused to our environment, which you can return the containers, once your party is over.

Budget option

Depends on the events & menu, etc. which can be customised and discussed later. (which will cover food, shopping, prep work etc). Budget depends on number of people, menus etc. For catering side budget depends on the nature of choice of menus, service etc, which can be discussed !!

I'll always sit down and discuss the menus and budget and happy to customise accordingly. I'm flexible and happy to help!!.
